

Cryptography 1

Linux Command-Line Basics: File and Directory Manipulation.

Part A

Objective: To learn the basic Linux commands through exercises.

Question 1: Directory Navigation

What is the command to navigate to the directory `/home/<username>/Desktop`?

Hint: change directory command - `cd`

Include a screenshot of the command output.

Question 2: Viewing Directory Contents

Which command is used to view the contents of a directory, including hidden files and directories?

Hint: `ls` command displays the contents of directory.

Include a screenshot of the command output.

Question 3: Creating Directories

How do you create a new directory named CNS<yourstudentnumber> along with Backup and images within the /home/<username>/ directory in the current directory? Also, create files named: <CNSgroup>.docx, <yourname>.txt, fourthyearunits.txt, friends.txt, UEFAchampions.txt

Directories to be created in the /home/<username>/ directory: CNS<yourstudentnumber> along with Backup and images

Hint: Use mkdir and touch commands

Share screenshots of the outputs.

Question 4: Deleting Files

What command is used to delete the file named UEFAchampions.txt?

Share a screenshot of the output.

Question 5: Copying Files

How do you copy the file fourthyearunits.txt from the current directory to the /home/<username>/backup directory?

Hint: Use cp command

Change the directory to the backup directory. Share a screenshot of the output.

CNS Bonus

Write a command to search for a key word ssh. Share screenshot of the output.